oResults UI Design

App Dashboard

User selects from a list of the most recent events

User can choose to add a new event

Event Dashboard

Add Event

Display event details, might allow editing

Add event details then go to event dashboard

User adds a new course

User selects courses from a list to add to the event

Add Course

User adds a new class

User selects classes from a list to add to the event

User can choose to run the event

User can view the results for the event

Add new course information, including the controls, then go to event dashboard

Import the event results from the SI readout CSV file

Event Registration

Add Class

Event Results

Add class information with option to import a list of students

User adds a new student

Display a summary of the results by course

User can indicate a student has checked in

Add Student

User can add the card number to a student

User can add a student to a course

Add the information for a single student - must be associated with a class.

User can indicate a student has started a course

User can indicate a studentt has completed a course